

Film Screening of BEYOND BREAST CANCER

Saskia Subramanian '88 will present and discuss her documentary film Beyond Breast Cancer: Stories of Survivors, which will be screened at the 2008 Baltimore Women's Film Festival.

Beyond Breast Cancer chronicles the experiences of nine courageous breast cancer survivors who find that their health struggles continue even after their cancer treatment ends. The film was made as part of a larger, interdisciplinary UCLA study funded by the Susan G. Komen Foundation, for which more than 100 women were interviewed. Beyond Breast Cancer forms a mosaic of the struggles, triumphs, and wisdom that follow from enduring a chronic health challenge.

Saskia received her A.B. and M.A. in Sociology at Bryn Mawr College, and her Ph.D. in Sociology from the University of Pennsylvania. She is currently an assistant research sociologist at the Center for Culture and Health of UCLA's David Geffen School of Medicine as well as a visiting assistant professor at UCLA's Women's Studies Department. She co-authored After the Cure: The Untold Stories of Breast Cancer Survivors (NYU Press, 2008).
